Compliments of LAVERN SMITH, REALTOR & INSURANCE, Butler.

This is the main entrance of the old grade building. Through its doors go the children from the fourth to the eighth grades.

This is the new and beautiful elementary building. With its color combinations the rooms are bright and cheerful. It is a building that all citizens of Butler are proud of.

Our Homes For Eighth Hours A Day

As you enter these doors you are in the lobby of the gymnasium. The gym is used for sports and many other sources of entertainment.

Compliments of CALLENDAR DAIRY, Edgerton, Ohio.

SOCIAL LIFE

We find Wayne Burdick selling concessions at a baseball game. A picnic group at Pokagon State Park who are eagerly waiting for chow.

Little Events

A lot of interesting events and activities happen during the school year and in our summer vacation. Baseball games are a big hit in the summer. Lot of people are there cheering and showing their loyalty to the team. A baseball game would not be complete without a concession stand for the hungry and thirsty fans. At a Senior Class Play usherettes are needed to seat people in their proper places. When you step inside the gymnasium door you see attractive usherettes in their colorful formals. At the end of the school year comes the time when the entire high school becomes anxious for the picnic at Pokagon State Park. Everyone enjoys picnics for fun and eats.

Janis Bacon, Ruth Carr, and Kay Bacon, a cute threesome took time out to pose for the camera while rooting at a baseball game. Ruth Campbell and Joan Tustison, two usherettes for the Senior Class Play.

Compliments of DWIGHT SEBERT, Butler.

Mary Wolfe, Gay Kessler, and Susie Szeman in a scene at a dress rehearsal from the Junior Play, "Tattletale." Richard Haverstock making as a monkey on a Senior paper drive.

Of Our Big Year

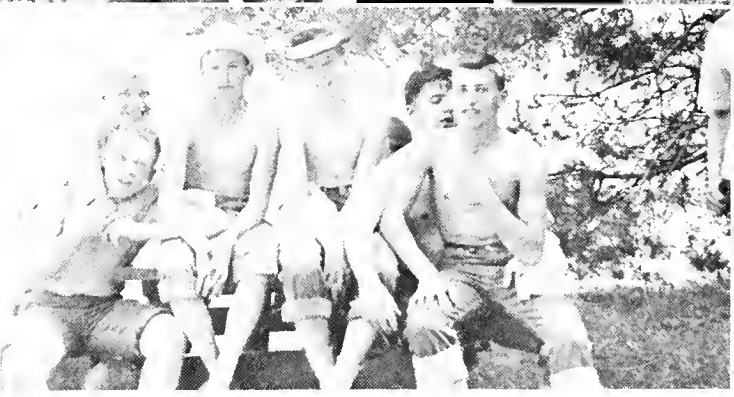
During our school year many events take place. Every class has different projects in which to make money to go on their Senior trip. The Senior paper drive is just one of the projects on which all work hard. Halloween Festival would not be complete without the raffle ticket booth sponsored by the Juniors. Many nice prizes are raffled off.

Summer time is the time for ice cream socials. In the hot weather ice cream is a refreshener along with all of the other food served.

Then it is play time. The play practice and dress rehearsals of getting ready for the big night follows. One of our enjoyable times for everyone, either taking part in the play or on a committee.

Mary Sue Copeland and Lura Lee Van Wye selling Junior raffle tickets at the Halloween Carnival. Miss Macklin, Rosalie Farmer, and Joan Lowe are eagerly awaiting to be served at the Sophomore Ice Cream Social.

Compliments of MEYER'S SUNOCO STATION, Butler.



Four jolly Juniors, Eleanor Clear, Janet Moore, Ened Hankey, and Susan Masters, take time out to pose for the camera bugs. Working like mad but having fun are Sylvia Van Leuven, Eleanor Clear, and Kay Bacon at the Annual Language Club Banquet. Just six bumps on a log, John Smith, Max Hoffer, Burgess Walters, John Meeks, Walter Smith, and George King. One of our favorite past times, Denise Diehl and Julie Smith out for their morning walk.

As We Relax

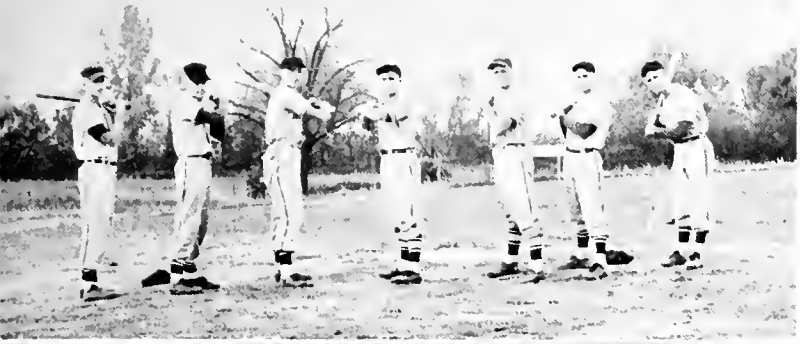
Relaxation and learning goes hand and hand. It is often hard to learn how to relax but after the battle is won, learning and playing will become easier.

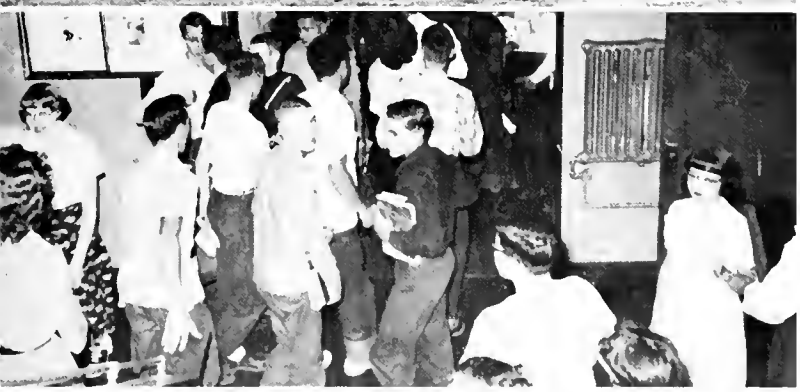
Being relaxed plays a big part right here in school. In order to receive the knowledge that is being put across you must be relaxed to a certain extent. There are parties, concerts, ball games, and picnics held by our school every year. We all enjoy these extra curricular activities but find it necessary to relax to do so.

There isn't any standard way of how to relax but after it is accomplished you will learn how to study and enjoy life more fully.

Max Hoffer, Dick Bacon, Don Herrick, Richard Campbell, Johnny Meeks, and Bob Rains form a perfect pyramid.

Compliments of FEDERAL FERTILIZER SALES CORPORATION, Butler.



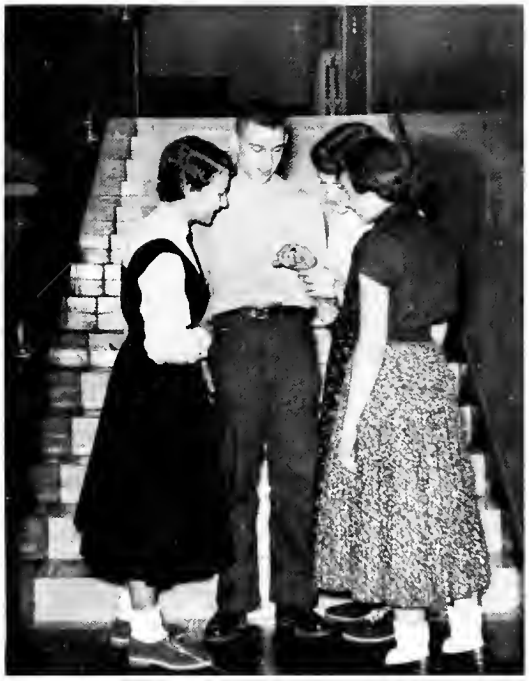


Batter up! Keith Nichols, Watler Shultz, Ron Herrick, Earl Shultz, Don Herrick, Robert Haverstock, and Richard Haverstock. Between classes in Butler High School.

And As We Learn

Freida Moore and George King learning to be good salesmen at their class bake sale which was held at Oberlin's T. V. Store.

Compliments of WM. MUTZFELD & SON, Butler.



Barbara Trobaugh, Rose Surface, and Helen Troyer admire Jeff Brown's new class ring.

The pictures on these two pages of "Fun and Fancy" go from one extreme to another, and even give you the glimpse of a normal day.

In the freshman year here was the thrill of joining clubs and being initiated. Then there was always the first picnic at Pokagon. Walk, run, jump, hop, and skip until finally they were too tired for anything but wading.

Then there was the day when the class rings were ordered. When finally they came, muffled ohs and ahs could be heard issuing from the classrooms. And in the halls, squeals of delight pierced the ears.

Next came Junior Play practice. What a job, but it was worth it. "Practice makes perfect", was heard several times during each rehearsal. Those who thought up the between acts skits worked just as hard as the cast.

Spring! And with it came the annual band concert and Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y prom. Two of the biggest events of the year.

Fun And Fancy

Arlene Overholtz, Sonya Alexander, and Florence Lautzenhizer make like Romans during the annual Language Club Banquet. Nancy Lung and Susie Szeman decide tocool their feet during a picnic at Pokagon State Park.

Compliments of LUNDY'S DAIRY, Edgerton, Ohio.

For All Alike

Walter Womack and Kay Bacon as they relax for a moment after a hard baseball game at Pokagon State Park.

Compliments of OBERLIN TV & APPLIANCES, Butler.

Kay Bacon, Nancy Lung, Eunice Meeks, Susie Szeman, and Janis Bacon take time out for refreshments at the Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y prom.

Anyone with a son or daughter of high school age knows what a flurry there was on the night of the Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y prom. The pictures on this page show some of the highlights of that prom.

No matter what type of evening it is, refreshments are in order. And, as we see, the girls at the table seem to be enjoying cake and punch before they start eating it.

Seeing the queen and her court, and looking at the decorations, one can see what a wonderful time was had. It was truly 'one magic night'.

For One Magic Night

Compliments of BUTLER THEATER, Butler.

A Geni Casts His Spell

Witches, ghosts, and goblins, all can be seen at the Halloween Festival. But this festival is not all play, for a lot of work is put into thinking up new ways to make money and decorating the booths.

In the pictures on this page you see two of the projects that were in operation. Some of the others were baseball toss, dart throw, cake walk, and raffle.

The highlight of the every Halloween Festival is the crowning of Cinderella and Prince Charming, who were Sonya Alexander and Don Herrick.

The Classes (7th thru 12th) choose two candidates, a boy and a girl, each. From these the two who have the most votes by 9:30 Halloween night are the winners. At 10:15 the climax of the race comes when the crowning takes place.

Compliment of JOHNSONS' FUNERAL HOME, Butler.

Mary Wolfe, Marilee Harter, Judy Van Zile, and Danielle Jones in a scene of the Junior Play. Earl Shultz with the make believe Ermintrude in the Junior Class Play, "Tattletale".

To Grease Paint

A play is one of the biggest events that takes place in our school year. To put on a play, takes lots of work, practice, and cooperation of the entire class and director. In the Junior year the class chose the play "Tattletale." There are many things that have to be done in putting on a play. First the director has the hard time choosing the cast. "Tattletale" is a story of a normal family which involved a group of teenagers.

Patty Blaine who was interested in becoming a writer, had her boy friend Tod get her a typewriter. Although she did not know that the typewriter belonged to the principal. Patty had written her novel but she did not want the people to know who wrote the novel, so she had her girl friend take her novel to be published. But by mistake Patty gave her girl friend her diary instead of her novel. This created a lot of trouble, but things turned out all right at the end. The play which was a success was enjoyed by all.

Gay Keesler, Judy Snyder, Nancy Lung and Cydney Jones behind the scenes as they make the famed Ermintrude.

Carolyn Woodcock, Walter Shultz, Karen Billings, Earl Shultz, Howard Krontz, Miss Macklin, Theron Snyder, Janis Bacon, Ron Herrick, Gay Keesler, Joe Albertson.

A Two Night Stand

"I'm quitting!" declares Marie (Nancy Lung) who is Mr. and Mrs. Wood's cook. Mrs Wood (Janis Bacon) and Mr. Wood (Ron Herrick) look at her with amazement. "Who does it look like? Marilyn Monroe!" Wheezer (Theron Snyder) looks around the room for a place to put the baby. Windy (Earl Shultz) does not offer to help his poor friend.

When serious minded adolescents took their parents in hand for a reform job, there were surprising results. The Woods were absorbed in relief drives, club meetings, political campaigns, golf, and his life's profession as a lawyer. Concerned about having only "left-over attention" the youngsters rebel. They, and their chums form a Society for the Prevention of Adult Delinquency.

First they transformed the living room into an adolescent hangout. Next the youngsters wrote letters of resignations to the various clubs signing their parents' names. Flowers and letters of consolation arrive and complications galore arose. Friends and relations can see both sides clearly and inject some common sense into the situation.

It's not a complete victory for either, but the seeds of tolerance and understanding have been sown.

Very Well Done

Senior girls presenting "Seventeen"between acts of the play.

Compliments of BOB'S HOME STORE, Butler.

Compliments of INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC CO., Butler.

Concerts And Convocations

Three short rings of a bell mean a convocation. Everyone troops down to the gym for any number of types of entertainment, pep sessions, movies, and talks by Mr. Lowe.

Some of the convos for this school year were interesting as well as educational. For instance, Marjorie Brade gave us the highlights of her European trip. The Indiana and Michigan Electric Company gave a safety demonstration. There were the monthly News Magazine movies which are always interesting.

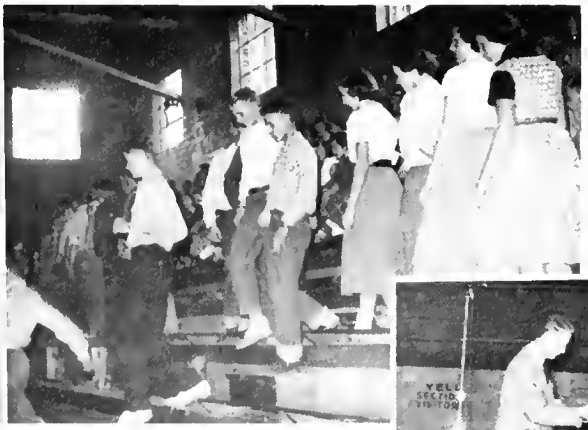
Then there are the ministers whose talks are inspiring and helpful. At Christmas the M.Y.F. put on a play about the birth of the Christ child. The Armistice Day program featured the color guard and the High School Band playing a few selections.

No school year would be right without programs featuring such artists as Frederic Sjobeart, noted pianist, and the Royal Scotts, dancers and singers.

Of course there are the big moments, such as the presentation of the band and the basketball trophies.

The seniors' big day comes when the awards are presented and especially on Senior Day when they are allowed to really let loose and have fun with the teachers and each other.

Bruce Hathaway presenting the Band Trophy to Mr. Gnagy. This trophy is exactly like the one the band won for their first place rating at Marching Contest. The Indiana Singing Hoosiers of which Marlene Doolittle is a member. Marlene graduated from Butler in 1953 and is now a senior at I. U.



Julie Smith and Bruce Hathaway in the Christmas play presented by the M. Y. F. Convocation is over and the student body returns to their classes. Frederic Sjobeart as he plays popular selections to entertain his audience. On the opposite page Inez Beard, Ruth Campbell, DeWayne Likes, Bill Ringenberg, and Mary Wolfe decorating the traditional Christmas Trees that are placed in the halls.

Compliments of UNIVERSAL TOOL & STAMPING, Butler.

From the time a student enters high school, until the final grades are in, a record is kept on the grades they make. At the end of the four years the grades are checked, and the tow students with the highest grades are chosen valedictorian and salutatorian.

Throughout their four years of high school, Arlene Overholtz and John King have shown outstanding qualities. Both have held offices in the class as well as other school organizations.

The senior class is proud to acknowledge you, Arlene Overholtz as Valedictorian and John King as Salutatorian.

From Honors . . .

The Citizenship winners were chosen by the faculty on points of personality, leadership, character, dependability, responsibility, and scholarship. Those receiving the awards from the American Legion are Roberta Crabb and John King, and the Eagles, Cydney Jones and Wayne Burdick. Arlene Overholtz was chosen by the class as the winner of the Daughters of American Revolution Citizenship Award.

Rose Surface and Bill Ringenberg were awarded two beautiful Gruen wrist watches as the prize for being top magazine salesmen of the year.

Compliments of SCHAAB'S DEPARTMENT STORE, Auburn.

Janis Bacon, Wayne Burdick, and Bill Brown are displaying V-neck sweaters. These sweaters are popular with both boys and girls.

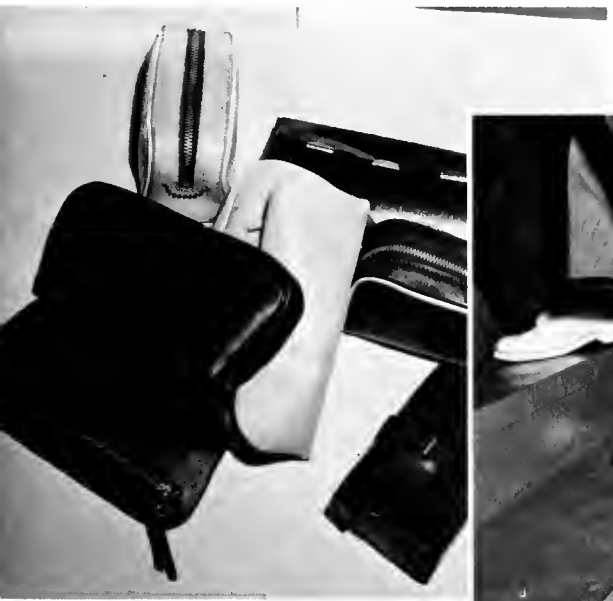
. . . To Fads And Fashions

Everywhere you go, classrooms, lunchroom, or hall, you see all sorts of fads and fashions. These fads even extend to the basketball game where the varsity boys can be seen sporting real keen green'n gold trousers. When the Mighty Mills start warming up they use a green'n gold ball. Real George.

Slick is the chick who can to seen in nylons and flat dress shoes. Bucks, oxfords, and loafers can also be seen.

It seems the gals need purses to keep their numerous (mostly useless) articles in. Some of the purses they carry are real gone.

Of course there's always novelty jewelry and keen new styles. Don't underestimate them.



Familiar articles to all the girls. Everything from Army surplus bullet boxes to clutch bags. A cross section of just a few of the different types of shoes worn by the students . . . . bucks, saddles, loafers, and oxfords.

Compliments of AGAR BUG COMPANY, Butler, and NATIONAL 5 & 10¢ STORE, Butler.

Cydney Jones, a cadet teacher, working with the first grade. Someday they might grow up and develop a thirst for chemistry as Keith Keltner and DeWayne Likes seem to have. Perhaps they may follow in the footsteps of Ralph Lint, Stanley Shaffer, and Bob Robinette as carpenters. Or some may be the literary brains such as Karen Billings, Bruce Hathaway, and Judy Snyder, who are part of the Record-Herald school newspaper staff.

Within Our Walls Are Equal

Compliments of UNDERHILL'S MARKET, Butler.

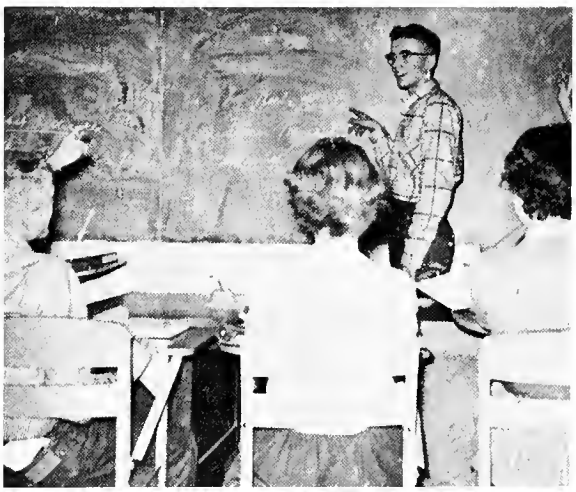
Joan Lowe and Steve Harts puzzle over a geometry problem while Brian Krontz looks on.

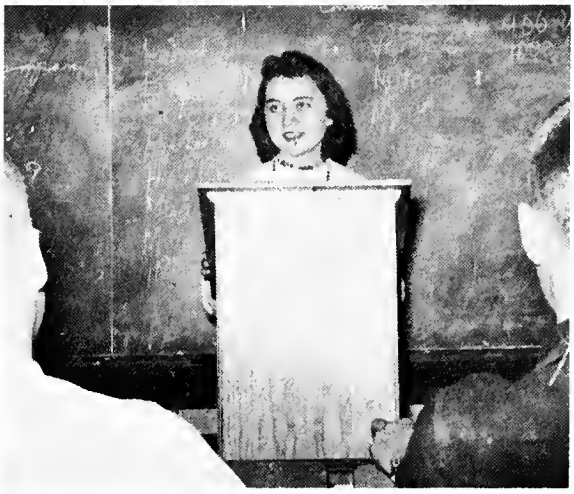
Danielle Jones, Arlene Overholtz, and Ann-Marie Miller work for Mr. Boling while Ann Martin, Janis Bacon, and Robert Haverstock catch up on their Government.

And Varied Opportunities

Jeanette David and Phyllis Rohrbaugh, two of the Future Homemakers of America.

Compliments of HAROLD'S STORE, Butler.





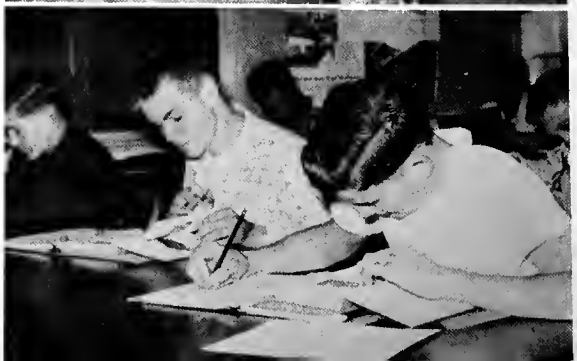
Doug Higley, Carolyn Getts, and Ronald Ault study Spanish while upstairs June Miller interests Max Hoffer and George King as she gives a book report in Junior English class.

The thirst for knowledge continues from the first thru the twelfth grade--it never stops.

Some people may choose to work as teachers, some as secretaries or carpenters. Others may choose a career such as journalism, law, scientific and biological chemistry. Still others will want to be mathematicians, some may choose to work with languages, and some will skill themselves in the art of housemaking.

Each person will choose the career in which he can do best. Each person will train himself as best as he can. Butler Schools offer many opportunities that give one a basic on which to make a living, or preparation for further training.

The Thirst For Knowledge Continues



Darwin Clear, Chuck Vose, and Connie McDonald are kept busy in biology lab while Dwight Sholl, James Huff, and Richard Trobaugh study their text books in agriculture class.

Compliments of DAY & FORD FURNITURE, Edgerton, Ohio.

ORGANIZATIONS

Bill Ringenberg, Vice President; Ron Herrick, President; Gay Keesler, Treasurer; Deanna Rosenberry, Secretary.

The Student Council of Butler High School is a comparatively recent organization. It is composed of one boy and one girl from each of the classes, the principal, and two teachers. There is also a reporter elected from each class.

The purpose of the Student Council is to present the students' view points to the faculty and to help formulate some of the school policies.

The selection of monitors was one of the first items of business. Eighteen monitors and alternates were chosen, three for each period.

The procedure for forming a school policy is as follows: A meeting is held in which the problem is presented and discussed. The problem is not acted upon at this meeting but held over to the next. This gives the members time to discuss the matter with the students, forming their opinion on the subject. At the next meeting the Council takes action and a definite policy is formulated.

Serving Our School With Policy,

Compliment of STUDENT COUNCIL.

The National Honor Society is a new club started in Butler High School the last part of the 1954-55 school year. The Club's name is the Windmill Chapter of the National Honor Society. Only Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors may belong. They are chosen by the administration. The Sophomores are only probationary members until they become full members and are then entitled to wear the pin of the club.

The pin consists of a gold keystone with a flaming torch on it and the letters CSLS. These letters represent character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Their purpose is to do a service for the school.

June Miller, Secretary; Bill Ringenberg, Treasurer; Arlene Overholtz, President; Gay Keesler, Vice President.

Leadership And Scholarship

To Create, Maintain, And Extend

Compliments of HI-Y.

The Hi-Y Club is a branch of the Y. M. C. A. Its purpose is "to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

The Butler Hi-Y is proud to be a member of the largest school organization in the United States. Besides regular meetings there is a special program at Christmas time and the Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y formal dance in the spring. Other services include variety of shows which are shown to the student body throughout the school year.

The emblem denoting the Hi-Y is the triangle surrounding across. Their platform and purposes are: clean speech, clean living, and clean scholarship.

Membership is open to any boy in the upper three classes who is accepted by a majority vote.

High Standards Of Christian Character

With the purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character" the Tri-Hi-Y was established.

The emblem of the club is triangle in the center of which is a circle containing a torch. The colors red, white and blue symbolizing sacrifice, purity, and loyality, hold the words Tri-Hi-Y.

Any Junior or Senior girl is eligible for membership in the Tri-Hi-Y and any Sophomore who has a B average. The project this year was selling salt water taffy.

Mrs. Hample is the sponsor of this organization.

Compliments of TRI-HI-Y.

Honoring The Blue Jackets

The Future Farmers of America is an organization specifically for the farm boys. They have a farm adjoining the new school which keeps them busy along with many other projects. Some of the things that they have done are the pest contest, scrap drives and seed sales.

The motto of the F.F A. is "Learning to do, doing to learn, learning to live, living to serve." Its purpose is to "practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities, and responsibilities and develop those qualities of leadership which a future farmer should possess."

Their color is "National Blue and Corn Gold." If you see a lot of boys running around with blue jackets with gold emblems on them, they belong to the Future Farmers of America.

Compliments of FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA.

And Future Homemakers

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization. Membership is open to any girl in the high school.

The purposes of the F.H.A. are to encourage democracy in home and community life, to develop creative leadership and to promote a growing appreciation of the satisfactions of homemaking.

The emblem of the club is a house supported by two hands symbolizing that the homes of America are in the hands of its youth. Their motto is "Toward New Horizons."

Their goals are to train and improve themselves to be more democratic in all phrases of life and to give emphasis to leadership ability by using democratic principles at home, at school, and in the community.

Their formal induction services are held by candlelight. During this impressive service the purposes and goals are read to all members.

FIRST ROW: Vice President, Carolyn Woodcock; Treasurer, Lura Lee Van Wye; Recreation Leader, Inez Beard. SECOND ROW: Historian, Carolyn Jennings; President, Eleanor Clear; Secretary, Sharon Robinette; Parliamentarian, Nora Shafer; Song Leader, Nacy Buttermore.

Compliments of FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA.

Discussing plans for the Tropaeum: Roberta Crabb, Editor, and Karen Walker, Assistant Editor. Keeping the books and money transactions straight are three important staff members. They are Mary Wolfe, Arlene Overholtz, and Howard Krontz, who are in charge of ads, records, and subscriptions.

Putting Our Yearbook

FIRST ROW: Carole Ginder, Janis Bacon, Ann Marie Miller, Roberta Crabb, Gay Keesler, Mary Wolfe, Cydney Jones. And School Paper Together

Working on the school paper are Miss Macklin, Sponsor; Karen Billings, Assistant Editor; and Sandra Doolittle, Editor. Getting the paper ready takes lots of time and energy. Working on their special jobs are John King, Roberta Crabb, and Joan Lowe.

Compliments of BREEZE STAFF.

Susan Masters, Vice-President; Sonya Alexander, Secretary-Treasurer; and Ronald Ault, President, prepare for a costume party. The wearing of the toga signifies the Latin Students.

As customary, the first meeting of the year featured a very colorful initiation of new members. These candidates arrived dressed in either Ancient Roman or Latin American clothing. Douglas Higley and Carolyn Getts were chosen the best dressed by the group.

The pin of the club is a small silver lighted torch surrounded by a wreath. It bears the letters J.C.L., which stand for Junior Classical League.

The purpose of this club is to further the student's knowledge of the customs of the people whose language they study.

Members Of The Junior Classical League

Compliments of LANGUAGE CLUB.

Several of the Junior and Senior girls get experience in working in an office by helping Mr. Lowe. They are Danielle Jones, Arlene Overholtz, Mary Wolfe, Eleanor Clear, Karen Billings, Cydney Jones, Nancy Lung, Janis Bacon. Carolyn Woodcock, absent.

And Helpers In Our Halls And Office

Those who keep our halls quiet are: Susan Masters, Inez Beard, Barbara Trobaugh, Gay Keesler, Wayne Burdick, Gary Culler.

To these students, Phyllis Rohrbaugh, Susan Masters, Carolyn Jennings, Gloria Lung, Jeannette David, Joan Berry, we owe the efficiency of our library.

Compliments of BUTLER FARM EQUIPMENT, Butler.

Compliments of
BOOSTER CLUB

Booster Club officers standing in front of their concession, the popcorn machine. Ruth Carr, Secretary-Treasurer, Cydney Jones, Vice-President, and Howard Krontz, President.

The Butler High School Booster Club is an organization formed to back the basketball team. To belong to the Booster Club, one must have a season ticket to the home games. Membership is open to grades seven through twelve.

This year a "Booster Block" was orgazined within the club. The "Booster Block" is a group of students who always sit in a designated section and wear white skirts or blouses, so as tc form a white block.

No dues are levied in this club. They have the popcorn concession at the ballgames to raise money.

This club has done much in backing the ball club and in furthering the school spirit.

Marches On And On

The Senior Band officers take time out for a little jazz. They are Nancy Lung, Secretary; Eleanor Clear, Assistant Treasurer; Bruce Hathaway, President; Janis Bacon, Vice-President; and Sharon Werner, Treasurer.

Compliments of WENDELL W. COOPER, JEWELER, Butler.

To Receive Fame In Their

Sandra Lee Doolittle, twirler, and Bruce Hathaway, drum major, do some pretty fancy high stepping as they lead the band.

The "Spirit of '76 Marches On," and on the band went to the Marching Festival at Fort Wayne the night of October 8th. They had worked hard to perfect the nine required maneuvers and to produce a "spectacular". After many hard and fast trips up and down the practice field, they were ready.

Although there were knees knocking during inspection, every one stood steady.

For the next eight minutes the members of the marching band really picked them up and laid them down. The flag scene made with colorful band flares, spotlights on Uncle Sam and Miss Liberty, and the band's playing of "God Bless America" brought a fine round of applause.

It was a grand night for old '76 when Butler was rewarded a superior.

With A Song In Our Hearts

The Chorus under the new direction of Miss Wilma Macklin has been singing many of the Sigmund Romberg melodies.

June Miller, JoAnn Rex, and Sandra Lee Doolittle again this year are a very popular group which sings for many social events.

There were several who participated in the state and all-state music contests, which are held in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis. Douglas Higley received a first place rating for his vocal solo.

Butler's girl trio, a popular singing group at many social events. June Miller, alto, JoAnn Rex, lead, and Sandra Lee Doolittle, tenor, are the three members of the trio. Arlene Overholtz, June Miller, and Deanna Rosenberry are the President, Secretary-Treasurer, and Vice-President of the Chorus.

The finish of another season came for the Windmills when they were defeated by the Fremont Eagles in the semi-final round of the sectional. Butler drew Orland in the first round, defeating them by a score of 69 to 60. Ashley was dropped on the second night with the Windmills scoring 64 points to their 58.

For the County Championship, Butler was host to Ashley, Waterloo, and Riverdale. After defeating Waterloo for the second time in the season the Windmills played Ashley for the championship. The boys were well rewarded as could be seen by the look of pleasure on each face as they cut down the nets.

Butler met Riverdale in the first game on their own floor for a victory of 71 to 38. Battling all the way, the 'Mills faced their first loss to New Haven by a margin of one point (56-57).

A thrilling victory was won over Waterloo in an overtime game in their gymnasium in the last game before tourney time.

Although the boys were somewhat handicapped in size, this was overcome by their speed, scrap, and spirit. George King, DeVeir Weicht, and John Durst from the second team saw some action on the varsity squad toward the end of the season.

It was a great season which came to a close for the nine seniors, Bruce Hathaway, John King, Keith Nichols, Ron Herrick, Don Herrick, Wayne Burdick, Earl Shultz, Walter Shultz, and DeWayne Likes, manager. These boys were awarded the customary honor jackets of green and gold.

George Cherry, George Bock, and Ralph Boling make up our coaching staff.

One of the most admired men in Butler High School is our Athletic Director, Mr. Cherry. Mr. Cherry has been a busy man these past four years as basketball, baseball, and track coach as well as teaching Government, Economics, Sociology, and Physical Education. Mr. Bock, our Freshman Coach, has a big job of getting the boys in shape for the first and second teams. Mr. Bock also helps with the track team. Mr. Boling has the all important task of teaching the Junior High boys the know-how of basketball. Mr. Boling has been the Junior High coach for the past two years and is doing a fine job.

Backing Our Teams In Wins And Defeats

This year Butler High School had four managers, DeWayne Likes, John Meeks, Brian Krontz, and Keith Smith. It is the job of these boys to keep the team looking their best as well as to keep the records and scores of different events. The student managers look after the balls, clean the floor, pack the uniforms and help the coaches.

Our student managers, DeWayne Likes, Brian Krontz, Keith Smith, and John Meeks.

Compliments of MAXTON'S BODY & FENDER SHOP, Butler.

A group of attractive and active girls, Janis Bacon, Kay Bacon, Jane Carr, Gay Keesler, Ruth Eck, and Mary Sue Copeland led the cheering sections for this year.

Are The Coaches, Managers, And Cheerleaders

Ruth Eck, Jane Carr, and Kay Bacon added a lot of color and pep to our basketball games, while leading cheers for the second team. The varsity cheerleaders, Janis Bacon, Gay Keesler, and Mary Sue Copeland worked hard at new yells and contributed enthusiasm to the Booster Bloc. Even when the going was rough they were behind the team all the way.

Compliments of LAUB BROTHER, Butler.

Injun And Freshmen Teams

The Injuns finished this year with an excellent record of fourteen wins and only four losses. Coach Cherry found it quite difficult to choose the starting twelve from the large number of boys who turned out to try for the team.

The team was small but they played a hard and fast game of ball, which proved successful. When the going got rough they were in there fighting and won six of their games by one point. One of these was in the County Tourney when the Injuns defeated Riverdale the first night and then overcoming Ashley for the championship by a three point margin (36-33)

Capture County Championships

The freshman team is under the coaching direction of Mr. George Bock, who is doing an excellent job. The boys have had a tough schedule this year and came through very well with only one loss, which was at the hands of Garrett.

Also backing the team are the student manager, Keith Smith, and the two cheerleaders, Carolyn Getts and Ellis Ewing. They have done a splendid job and helped to give the team that extra ounce of courage.

These boys will be our future varsity. Their records from the past two years have shown to be very promising. The boys are small and medium in their build and height, but nevertheless they play a hard and fast game.

The Freshman All Stars met Riverdale in their first game and came out on top with a victory of 39 to 26. Their only loss of the season came when they met Garrett for the second time. At their first meeting the All Stars out - scored them by twenty-eight points (57-29). Garrett won a 43-36 decision over Butler.

The Invitational County Tourney was played at Garrett, and the Freshman All Stars brought home the winners trophy.

Junior High And Noon Leaguers

The Junior High again this year played under the supervision of Mr. Boling. Although they had a little bad luck, they tried hard and we are proud of our future varsity.

To back the team there were two cheerleaders, Donna Walter and Shannon Patee, and the efficient student managers, Ronnie Grable and Harold Wasson, who contributed much to the Gamemasters by their presence at every game.

The Gamemasters won only two games this year and lost twelve. We are sure they will do better next season.

Resting after a hard played game are Rose Surface, President; Freida Moore, Vice President; Carolyn Hankey, Secretary-Treasurer; Helen Troyer, Point Keeper.

This is the second year since the Butler Girls' Athletic Association has been organized. This year they have started a Junior High G.A.A. The Junior High play every Friday and the High School G.A.A. play every Thursday during the noon hour.

For their project this year, seven girls, Rose Surface, Karen Walker, Mary Sue Copeland, Janet Moore, Kay Bacon, Freida Moore, and Inez Beard, and Mrs. Buenerkemper went to New Haven on December 3 to play basketball. Some of the other teams represented were Scotsburg, New Haven, Auburn, and Garrett.

Mrs. Marianne Buenerkemper is the sponsor of this organization.

The above picture shows the shoulders on which rest a lot of the responsibility of the school. They are: Catherine Smith, Secretary; Dal Winn, Member; Frank Koresmeyer, Treasurer; Leighton Tombow, Member; Keith Culler, President. Ernest Zeller, Superintendent (not shown) is an ex-officio member of the school board.

On These People

We proudly salute our schoolboard, for without them our school would have fewer advantages.

The schoolboard is a typical form of government of many of the institutions in the United States, such as churches, hospitals, and commercial organizations.

The members of the schoolboard represent the people who own and support the school. They form the grass roots of an organization which is closer to the people than any other form of government. They spend the local taxpayer's money and are responsible to their neighbors for the action. They are trustees of a great public responsibility.

All teachers are recommended by the Superintendent to the board. They then have to okay them. The board discusses any problems concerning the school and is responsible for all school policies.

The board holds their regular meeting on the third Monday of each month at 7:30 P.M. in the Superintendent's office.

Mr. Tombow, newly elected mayor, resigned from his post on the school board because of a ruling that no one person may hold two public offices. The Circuit Court Judge appointed his successor, Wendell W. Cooper, who will serve the rest of Mayor Tombow's term. Ordinarily all offices on our school board are filled by election.

ERNEST M. ZELLER - Indiana State, B.S., M.S., Indiana University, Dir. D., Northern Carolina University, U.C., L.A. Superintendent. Ambition: To be a good school man.

HELEN HOULTON - International Business College. Secretary to Mr. Zeller. Ambition: To work in a Hospital.

It is thru the efforts of our superintendent, principal, and their secretaries, that the Butler Metropolitan Schools are run so efficiently. Our schools have been greatly improved since Mr. Zeller and Mr. Lowe have taken over, both in appearance and intellectual curriculum.

Since Mr. Lowe and Mr. Zeller have been in Butler, they have not only redecorated the school, but have seen to it that a new school building was erected for the younger school children. They have also added some new courses to the school plan. They have instituted an honor society and installed in every student a deep respect for their school.

The 1956 graduating class of Butler High School owes much to the teachers whose faces are pictured on these pages.

These teachers first saw us when we were pliable freshmen. They took us under their wing, taught and counseled us. All thru our four years of high school they have guided us and helped us over the rough spots. Because of these people we are prepared to go out into the world, make our living, and become good citizens.

Washington D. C. or Bust

On May 24, 1955, a group of lucky seniors left Butler for a week of enjoyment.

Wednesday, May 25, at 8:45 a.m. they arrived in New York where they boarded special buses for a Grand Tour of Upper and Lower Manhattan. After three and a half hours of seeing the sights they went to the Hotel Taft.

Thursday, May 26th, they all had a three hour cruise around Manhattan Island. The same day they checked out of the hotel, leaving the rest of the day open for themselves.

Friday, May 27th, they boarded the B.&O. for Washington D. C., and arrived at 7:00 A.M. While in Washington they saw many interesting sights such as the Washington Monument, Capital Building, Congressional Library and Supreme Court.

Saturday, they left for a tour to Arlington, Alexandria, and Mount Vernon.

At 5:30 P.M. Sunday they left Washington on the B.&O. for Toledo, Ohio. Here they changed trains and started home. They arrived in Butler at 8:25 A.M. on Lake Shore Limited after a very thrilling week.

A famous flag flew on the night of the Seniors departure to Washington.

Acknowledgements

The Tropaeum Staff of 1956 desires to express their gratitude to:

Mr. Robert S. Sutula of Elkhart, who contributed much to our yearbook through his fine photography;

Mr. Harold Walker of Butler for his aid in taking and developing our pictures.

Mr. John D. Livingston for serving in the capacity of yearbook advisor;

Mr. Leonard E. Lowe, our principal, who gave to the Tropaeum and Breeze staffs the use of his old office;

Those who sponsored pages in our yearbooks through their support and financial aid;

You, the purchaser of our yearbook; may you enjoy reading it as much as we have enjoyed putting it together.
